SO I'VE VOTED,
NOW WHAT?

I HAVE A COMMUNITY CONCERN, WHO SHOULD I CONTACT?

ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES

Elected officials represent your community, advocating for policies and resources to improve quality of life. If you have concerns that have not been addressed by a specific City department or you have a community wide concern or suggestion, reach out to your local, state, and federal officials. To find out who your elected officials are see the links below.

HOW CAN I USE MY VOICE TO IMPACT THE COMMUNITY?

BOARDS & COMMISSIONS

The City of Hartford has a variety of Boards and Commissions. You could be a participant by becoming an official member or attending one of their public meetings to help guide their priorities in specific issue areas. These bodies advise the Mayor, City Council, and other elected officials on policies and resource allocation among other things.
